2nd International EcotoxicoMic Conference

(October 6-9, 2020)

EcotoxicoMic 2020

2nd International Conference on
Microbial Ecotoxicology

October 6-9, 2020
Montpellier, FRANCE

Sessions:

- Impact of contaminants on microbial functions
- Micro-organisms in complex systems: biological interactions, pollution & climate change
- Micro-organisms role in contaminants (eco)dynamics & application to bioremediation
- Micro-organisms for environmental risk assessment
- From research to end-users

Contribute to the URBIFUN Project

The main goal of URBIFUN is to analyze the effects of an urbanization gradient on the relationship between microbial biodiversity and ecosystem functioning. Participating groups of young researchers (phD and post-doc) are welcome.
