EcotoxicoMic upcoming event: 2nd international webinar of young microbial ecotoxicology researchers

13th of November, 20th of November, and 27th of November 2023
Monday afternoon (Paris time zone)

After a successful first session in 2021, the EcotoxicoMic Young Researchers committee is organizing a second webinar by and for young microbial ecotoxicologists.

This series of three half-day webinars will spotlight the research activities of International keynote speakers, M.Sc., Ph.D. students and Post-Docs that will present their research in Microbial Ecotoxicology to the international community as flash (pre-recorded presentations) or live presentations (10 minutes followed by questions).

The webinar is free and open to everyone! Detailed information is on the EcotoxicoMic website.

Keynote speakers

Dr. Chiho Suzuki-Minakuchia
(University of Tokyo, Japan)

She is interested in the effect of plasmid carriage for host cells and in the function of nucleoid-associated proteins

Dr. Júlia Rosa de Rezende
(Heriot-Watt University, UK)

She is interested in geomicrobiological processes in surface and subsurface environments, in particular oil reservoirs.

Dr. Natàlia Corcoll
(University of Gothenburg, Sweden)

She is interested in understanding mechanisms of action, biodiversity changes and tolerance development in aquatic microorganisms.

Submit your abstract before the 1st of September 2023

By filling out the submission form at: <https://form.jotform.com/231644121634044>

EcotoxicoMicYR Awards

Best Live presentations: Thanks to a grant from the Environmental Science and Pollution Research (ESPR) Journal (Springer), the awarded PhD Students and Post-Docs will be invited to present their work as invited speakers at the EcotoxicoMic 2024 Conference

Best Flash presentations: The awarded speakers will receive an original EcotoxicoMicYR T-shirt!
